

Wish List

Plane Tickets (4 per year) – Turtle Up staff and researchers must travel to Ghana often to work with our local partners. Airline tickets to Ghana (approximately 4 per year) average about $1,600 each.

First-aid kits for one year – Turtle wants to ensure the health and well-being of our researchers, volunteers, and staff. Your support will allow us to purchase kits for an entire year, $200.

Salary for turtle surveyors for leatherback, olive ridley, and/or green turtle season –These surveyors provide valuable information and data on the numbers of turtles that come to the New Ningo beaches. If you choose this item, you will sponsor 2 surveyors salaries, $1,200 each per year per person.

Paid internship for Turtle Up– Because our CEO is a faculty member at the University of Dayton (UD), there are many opportunities for students from various fields to work with Turtle Up. Sponsorship of this item will allow Turtle Up to pay its part-time interns, $2,000 per semester per intern.

Purchase of equipment/supplies needed for one season such as flashlights, binoculars, batteries, and hand-held radios. Sponsorship covers the costs of these supplies, $1,000.

Computer equipment. Turtle Up is grateful for computers, printers, tablets, smart phones and scanners. Sponsorship will help us purchase, upgrade, or maintain our current equipment, $2,500.

Research Assistants. Turtle Up works with research assistants in Ghana. These assistants play a key role in gathering information and protecting New Ningo’s sea turtles. Sponsorship will pay for room and board for one of these assistants for a turtle season, $2,500.

Sponsor two students to design culturally responsive turtle tracker, $5000 for two students.

Sponsor one satellite transmitter and satellite time – Turtle Up aims to conduct satellite tracking studies of sea turtles. This research provides valuable data about the movements of Ghana sea turtles. Sponsorship will pay for the costs of one satellite transmitter, the satellite time and travel costs to attach the transmitter, $7,500.

Sponsor our website: $1000/year (hosting, domain name, SSL certificate, and payment processing software).

Donate your car or sponsor one. Turtle Up could use a truck or any other 4x4 vehicles to transport our volunteers and for our staff to efficiently preserve and conserve our sea turtles.

Please contact Corinne Brion by phone (541-531-3770) or e-mail for more information or if you would like to fund one of the above projects or needs.